

Is there a recurring small, highly convergent span around the root?

Each structure's most convergent spans (top three levels, at least 2 tests);
the number is how many tests pick the span out. Grey: the whole structure.

